PLASTIC GRANNIES

EDITH INSISTED THAT THERE WAS NOTHING IN THE RULES WHICH SAID YOU COULDN'T USE A PAINT ROLLER.

Plastic Grannies is the creation of artist/writer, Mychailo 'Mike' Kazybrid, who has worked professionally in the comic book industry for over 36 years, this mainly on licensed characters and titles such as Wallace & Gromit, Shaun the Sheep, Duckula, Dangermouse, The Tick, Matt and the Cat (Transformers UK), to mention but a small few.

His work equally includes six years producing daily cartoon strips for provincial newspapers such as the Bradford Telegraph & Argus, and later the Manchester Evening News, and more recently drawing the Wallace & Gromit daily cartoon strip in The Sun. His work has ranged from children's books, international comic strips for mobile phones, to four years in broadcast television. Much of his artwork is showcased on <http://kazybridscharactercreation.blogspot.com/>, this includes showing original pencils and inks of the Wallace & Gromit strips. His cartoons can also be seen in the Two Men and a Ghost feature in Haunted Magazine.

SOFIA CORTEZ

Name: Sophia Cortez

Age: 23

Location: Leicester

Occupation(s): Model, dancer, tv and webcam girl, I am also involved in the new facechat adult entertainment company called www.saucytime.com

Tell us a bit about yourself: I am a full time model and dancer, and recently got involved in web camming and saucytime. I really enjoy my jobs as I work when I want so it gives me the freedom to go out and socialise and party! I love travelling and have spent two seasons in Ibiza including dancing for Manumission at Amnesia which was an amazing experience. Half of my family are from Italy and I'm very proud of my heritage! I love eating out, partying, spending time with my friends, shopping, music, and most of all living life for the moment!

How did you get in to modeling and how long have you been doing it: I got into it when I was about 16. I got asked to do the public catwalk at a clothes show.

Who would you marry, kiss and avoid: Marry david beckham , kiss Joey Essex and avoid Mark from towie.

If you could eat one food for the rest of your life what would it be: italian food so id have variety and yummy food!

What are you measurements: Chest 32b/c, waist 25, hips 32, shoe 5/6.

Can you remember your first shoot and what it was like: Yes it was cold! I was nervous but I still have the photos to this day. I was photoshopped into a flower as a fairie and sold in a shop!

Best/Worst shoot to date: Best shoots... too many to mention, I've worked with many creative photographers, the more creative the better! Although being flown out to St. Tropez to shoot for Mayfair was fun!

Your best work experiences so far:

Best experiences are working on tv for babe channels we used to have such a giggle and also being 1 of 2 girls picked out of 400 auditioners in Ibiza to dance for Manumission on poles that were 30ft high, insured for 3 million euros, infront of 4,500 people on Living TV... that was an amazing feeling as I love pole dancing and choreographed dancing!

Do you do anything else: I'm a socialite haha!

What are your hobbies: Shopping, travelling, dancing, trying to DJ, clubbing and wearing fancy dress outfits!

Photographer: James Burton
MUA: Sarah Rumsey

Do you have any other talents:
I'm flexible ;) and artistic!

Describe yourself in one sentence: Petite princess, party animal, down to earth, always tanned, and when I want to do something I make sure I do it properly!

What's your best night out:
Best nights out are when I'm with good company, good tunes, plenty of champagne and spirit,s in a club where you can go off on little adventures!

Favourite Music: Deep house and techno with a little bit of rap and drum n bass thrown in from time to time!

Are you single or taken: Single!

Naughtiest thing you've ever done: Too many to mention, I've had a few moments including a nudist villa party in Ibiza, skinny dipping and swimming up to yachts on lilos to hijack parties!

Have you ever kissed a girl:
Yes, a drunken moment to impress boys haha.

Celebrity dream date: George Clooney

Future goals: To be published more and never limit myself to one field of modelling like glamour. I'd also like to do a lot more editorial style shoots and fashion shoots. I also want to become a qualified make-up artist and eventually start up my own. company covering all aspects of make-up so my company would get all kinds of work (magazines, tv, theatre, film, club dancers, bridal etc)

We see you have just shot with James Burton for Elite, the final images are amazing, how was it working with him? James is a great photographer we had great communications before the shoot, he's very down to earth and we had a very chilled out but productive day. I see him as a very creative upcoming photographer who doesn't limit himself to one style! He is definitely one of my faves! I am hoping we can arrange another shoot for the near future as we both work together very well and also I'd like to give credit to our amazing make-up artist Sarah Rumsey who was taught by Mai Lee at Beauty Base School London.

Any last words for our readers: If you'd like to follow me add me on Facebook @ Sofia Cortez , also www.britainsgotwebcams.com (webcam glamour girls) and www.saucytime.com (the first face time apple interactive video chat to come out)... mwah! xx

DIARY OF A DRUNK:

HOW ARE WE GOING TO KEEP OUR NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS THIS YEAR?

BY ADAM JAMESON

Going to gym: well to keep fit you don't actually have to join a gym you just have to know where it is, in case of fitness emergency.

And if you wanted to keep fit, all you have to do is join the liberal democrats, doing that many U turns is got to keep you fit and the required selling of your soul will lose you about 21 grams.

Failing this, a rich person could try a healthy addiction to cocaine, while a poor person could move in with a fat person who will eat all the food.

Spending more time with the family: being aware they exist rather than the usual avoiding their calls and telling your friends they were killed in a car accident is easy to achieve by simply making plans to meet for lunch and then cancelling at the last minute, it's the thought that counts.

Leading a more positive life: this is very difficult to achieve since it actually resolves around changing who you are on the most basic levels. Let us be honest you're a pretty depressing person to be around.

Now think back, how specific were you when you told your friends you were going to be positive in 2011? A trip to Africa or a gay sauna will make you positive for life* *not all gays/Africans are HIV+ so just have sex with everyone, at least you'll be popular.

Enjoy life more: people who are generally sad have this has their resolution, so find the happy people in your life and take everything that gives them joy whether it be partner, puppy, job, or painkillers.

If you don't enjoy it simple return it where you found it or drown it in a river.

Get rid of debt: if you haven't managed to get of debt yet, deciding to do it in January isn't going to change much.

The best way to get out of debt is through defrauding. Have you heard about homeopathic remedies? It's a made up pill to fool the middle classes.

Remember when you used to make rose perfume and sell it to the neighbours, it's a bit like that but it stops people from seeking the correct medical treatment.

Just say you bought it from a foreigner, stupid people will love it, and it'll pay off your credit card bill.

Quit smoking: despite making you look like a 1950's movie star, smoking also kills you. The government never really mention this, so that might come as a shock to you.

But what is the best method of quitting, I would recommend taking up something that is similar to smoking or gives you a similar release like cage fighting or self-harming.

I would also recommend walking around with a lollypop and solving crime.

Learning something new: the whole point of having New Year resolution is so you can brag to your friends when you actually keep them. So pretend to learn something your friends don't know you already know.

Like who's cheating on who, your mates pin number or the words to national anthem.

Devote time to charity: charity begins at home, so doing a bit of housework and treating yourself to a new vacuum cleaner should just about do it.

Quit drinking: no one has ever completed this resolution. Don't be a martyr, no one is asking you to be Jesus. Why would anyone want to quit drinking anyway, freaks.

SHE'S BACK!

Why has it take you so long to come back to Elite? 'Cause I've been super busy trying to further my modelling career. I am glad to be back though!

So what have you been up to? Since I was last in Elite I've been published in Nuts, Zoo, and the Sunday Sport a number of times. Got a shoot with Nuts on the 6th Jan as well. I'm looking forward to that and hopefully a few more things in the pipeline. ;o)

Single or Taken? Single.

Who are your modeling aspirations? I'd love to be a Page 3 girl. :o)

If you could do a sexy photo shoot with any model, who'd it be? Rhian Sudgen. Always been a fan of her!

If you could be a man for the day, what would you do? Hang out with the boys and see what they really talk about when there aren't any girls around!

Do you ask girls to feel your boobs? Yeah if they think they are fake I make them squeeze them so they know they're all real!

So how can a guy impress you? Make me laugh and be a gentleman!

If you could be in charge of Elite for a week, what would you do? Get more topless gorgeous girlies in and maybe some male eye candy for the ladies!

What kind of girl would you go out for if you were a man? A girl who looked like Megan Fox preferably! :-P Obviously who has a good personality to go with the looks though otherwise I'd get bored no matter how good looking she was!

What would you do if you had three wishes? Probably make people less judgemental, I'd take myself and my family on a really long lush holiday to Florida as they deserve it and buy my own house!

What is the naughtiest thing you want to do? That's for me to know and you not to find out!

Have you ever kissed a girl? Many times! ;o)

Where's the strangest place you have ever had sex? Not strange, but in the cinema!

What's your trademark move in the bedroom? I don't wanna give my secrets away! ;o)

What's a guaranteed turn-on for you? Neck kisses!

What's your rude fancy-dress outfit of choice? Naughty nurse!

What are your best assets? My eyes and boobs.

What's been your favourite shoots of all time? I loved shooting with Chelsea White. She's super talented and also a make-up artist as well although shot with her when I had blonde hair. Would love to shoot with her again as a brunette this time!

Blonde or brunette? Brunette defo! I think I look classier.

Has any girl in particular blown you away over the years? Rhian Sugden never takes a bad photo. She's naturally beautiful! She's my inspiration in modelling! Natural!

Can you describe your own boobs in three words? Real, full, pert!

Finally, do you have a message for our loyal readers? Thanks for reading my interview! :o) I appreciate all of your support. Follow me on Twitter to keep up-to-date @emmagreenmodel!

A close-up photograph of a woman with blonde hair, looking upwards with an open mouth in a surprised or awe-struck expression. Her right hand is raised towards her face, with fingers slightly spread. She is wearing a black top and a thick, metallic chain necklace. The background is a light-colored, textured wall. The text 'Oh Maja God! How amazing is Maja Stina?' is overlaid in the upper right corner.

Oh Maja God!
How amazing is Maja Stina?

Name: Maja Stina

Age: 22

Location: Bury St Edmunds, UK

Occupation(s): Model, makeup artist, clothing designer & apprentice tattooist.

Tell us a bit about yourself: I'm a 22 year old girl that likes to go with the flow, I got into modelling purely by accident. I dropped out of university (studying biomedical science) to do "what I want, when I want"; to many, this might seem unrealistic but it was quite reasonable in my eyes, and it still is! I'm a very motivated person so have always found a hobby to consume the majority of my free time, ever since I was young. I decided to give modelling a shot in summer 2010, which led to many shoots following it and before I knew it, I was modelling professionally. I've come a long way in a short period of time in the modelling world and I'm over the moon about it! However, I will say that I don't want modelling to be the be all and end all for me; it's one of many strings to my bow and I'd like to continue to learn and grow as a person in many ways in years to come!

How did you get in to modeling and how long have you been doing it? I've been modelling since May/June 2010 so just roughly a year and a half now. I had considered modelling when I was eighteen but never took it up as I worried my scars would hold me back. I finally took the plunge when I was almost 21 and haven't regretted it. I joined Model Mayhem and started messaging photographers, and it wasn't long before I had a shoot booked. I never imagined I'd come this far, let alone in such a short period of time!

What are your measurements? 34-25-35, 5ft 6.5.

What is like being an Alt model? Do you think it is any different? I think so, yes. We're like a little community; all of the alternative models in my area know each other and get on well. I've not worked in the fashion industry but I do hear it's very bitchy. But it's really competitive, whereas I don't feel that the alternative modelling community is like that as much. There is competition among us but it's friendly competition, if anything. There are a few that aren't so nice but you get that in any walk of life.

How do you find the alternative community? The modelling community is really friendly but there are other aspects of the alternative community that aren't always so nice. I don't like to take sides, though, unless a particular person or group has targeted me, personally, or done something that upset me. If it's "he said, she said", I don't want to hear it!

Best/Worst shoot to date: I can't really think of a worst shoot to date. I've not really had any bad experiences in the past! A photographer did squeeze my boob at the end of a shoot and it had me completely taken aback, but nothing incredibly sinister has happened; any kind of sexual assault is wrong but I am very happy to say that I've never been afraid for my safety on a shoot and that's the main thing, I suppose! I will say it's important to tell other models when bad things happen, as it means we can be strong as a group, to get rid of the few people out there who are in it to just get their rocks off, or abuse models.

My favourite shoot has probably got to be my shoot for Bizarre magazine for the cover star contest they held. 10 of us came to the shoot where we each shot for our own page of the magazine; the other girls and the Bizarre team were awesome to work with, and tonnes of fun! :)

Is there anything you wish you could of done in the industry? I wish I could be a fashion model! I was too short; I'm only 5ft 6.5 so I couldn't really do fashion. I know that there are exceptions to the rule but I wasn't prepared to make the sacrifices to go for it. So, instead, I went ahead with my plans of getting tattoos (with more to come) and pursued a career in alternative modelling. I love it!

Your best and worst experiences so far:

I really love how supportive fellow models can be. I never expected it when I came into the industry but I'm making some awesome friends and I'm over the moon about it. One negative thing I can say is that I am a very, very introverted person. I come across as an extrovert at times but I keep my personal life and feelings to myself so can get really overwhelmed when I have to meet new people, which is unavoidable in this line of work! I do work with some photographers more than once but it takes me so long to become comfortable with those people and I do have my moments where I feel like I can't face the world, but I'm sure we all do!

Do you do anything else? I'm a makeup artist, but only a hobbyist. It's not to say I couldn't make money from it but I don't have an interest in pursuing it so I do the occasional TF shoot local to me. I also design latex clothing which, again, is more of a hobby. I do sell pieces and have an online shop but I don't push for sales and spend more time trying to design new things to send to models to get pretty pictures. I'll take every order I'm capable of fulfilling but I'm happy with the trickle of business I have at the moment! Lastly, I've been learning to tattoo and I'm thoroughly enjoying it! My 10th piece was portrait of a rhesus monkey that was sent into space. We went for 11 hours straight but I'm really happy with how it turned out! I don't think I'll ever do another sitting so long; it was done on Gavin Rodrigues, who is training me, and was adamant I had to finish that night!

What are your hobbies? I don't have much in my life outside work, if I'm honest. I like food and sleep! I try and go out to eat now and then and really love Japanese food. I'm always looking for new things to try and travelling is definitely big on my list of things I enjoy. I'm planning on studying something again soon, but I'm not quite sure what I'd like to do just yet!

What's your best night out? I don't really go out and party much but I do love listening to music so going to see a good band after having dinner somewhere with friends would be awesome.

Who would you marry, kiss and avoid? This is a hard question! I'd marry Hugh Laurie because he's just amazing in many ways! I REALLY don't know who I'd kiss because there are so many awesome people out there. But all of them I would only kiss on the cheek or forehead as I would be creeped out by kissing a stranger. I would avoid most politicians!

Favourite Music: I enjoy a great variety of music, to be honest. I'm not really that interested in mainstream music but enjoy anything from classic rock, to electronica!

Are you single or taken:

Taken! I'm dating Gavin Rodrigues, who is an amazing portrait tattooist and is also helping me learn to tattoo. I now tattoo part-time and model part-time!

Naughtiest thing you've ever done....

Hehe well I don't know about sharing that one! I'm quite a private person. :p Sorry!

Have you ever kissed a girl? I think a lot of women my age have kissed girls as it seems to be more socially acceptable again, so yes!

How can a guy impress you? I like genuine guys who can think from themselves, think out of the box. Intelligence is attractive, but so is modesty!

Celebrity dream date: Hugh Laurie! I just adore him. I think that if we went on a date, it'd be totally weird and creepy! I'd really rather just meet him and stare at him the whole time while he tells me about interesting things in his life, or things he's passionate about.

Photographer: Glenn Richardson/ GR Photography

Future goals: As it's the start of a new year, I might as well talk about my goals for 2012! I aspire to become a lot better at tattooing in 2012, as well as gaining a following there. I also intend to work as a makeup artist more and to get more work with that. I would also like to further my modelling career wherever I can, leading to a balance between makeup artistry, tattooing and modelling. Hopefully I'll be able to pay the bills and then have some money to play with left over! At the moment, times are hard, I must say!

Any last words for our readers:

A lot of people ask me how I got to where I am today. I've been modelling for a year and a half now and have been professional for about half of that time. If there's something you want to do, what's stopping you? Yourself! If you are scared to try something new, that's what holds you back more than anything. I never paid for a photoshoot, stylist, makeup artist, etc when I started modelling. I just worked my way up the ladder with hard work and a good bit of research and common sense! Anything I wanted to find out about, I literally Googled it! The internet is full of information, so use it! It's where I learned most of what I know today, tattooing aside! So if you have a goal, go for it! Don't be afraid of failure because most people I know who have failed at something, have failed because they never really tried.

Hi Cara, thank you so much for coming back to Elite and finally gracing our cover! What have you been up to? Well I've been keeping out of trouble! Bluebird TV has been keeping me busy, appearing onscreen 2-3 times a week along with shoots for various publications such as the Sunday Sport. I've also taken up the gym, don't laugh it was about bloody time! I've even taken up the services of a personal trainer who is doing her best to whip me into shape!

Is this your first photo shoot for a magazine? No it isn't, though it's certainly been one of the best! I've also been lucky enough to shoot for ZOO, Australian Picture Magazine, the official Bluebird magazine and LOADED (back in the day). However I am incredibly proud to say this is my first cover and I couldn't be more pleased that it's Elite, yay!!!

Cara Steel

She is simply the breast...

Who are your modeling aspirations?

Hmm thats a hard one, with regards to who I aspire to be as successful as? Kate Moss is a massive inspiration as she faced so much rejection to begin with but has come out laughing. I would love to be as successful as Lily Cole just because she's not your stereotypical beauty but has gone on to have massive success, is the face of many brands and has also moved into film. Most importantly she's done it without public scandal and maintained a sense of grace. If we're dreaming though I would love to achieve an international sex symbol status like Megan Fox!

What are your best assets? Probably my legs, I'm very tall and so was blessed with pretty ok pins!

If you could do a sexy photo shoot with any model, who'd it be? This is such a hard question, there are so many amazing models. I know I would regret it once standing next to her in my underwear but Adriana Lima. OH MY GOD she's amazing, a true natural beauty.

What's the best thing about having big boobs? Getting served quicker at a bar... only joking. I love how clothes fit, especially lingerie. I can look at a bra and be pretty sure it's going to look ok. And I bloody love having a killer cleavage, it just makes me feel sexy.

Have you ever popped out in public?

Many a time, my left nip in particular is always trying to make a bid for freedom! worst time was probably at a funfair, I got off the rock'n'roller ride and couldn't work out why a group of policeman were staring at me. It was a at least 5 minutes later when I realised my boob tube had completely slipped down revealing everything! I can't believe none of my friends even noticed!!

If you could be one person for the day, who would you be? Simon Cowell. I heard he eats his breakfast in bed every morning watching cartoons, amazing! I would just love to know how it feels to be that rich and powerful and to really not give a damn! Also I've always wanted to be a man for the day, come on, I think every girl secretly does!

Do you ask girls to feel your boobs? I don't have to! Nearly everytime I go on a night out at least one girl asks to have a feel, people are still fascinated by fake boobs. Also in my industry me and the other girls are always comparing boobs, having a feel of each others, seeing whos are best... were definitely not shy around each other.

If you could be in charge of Elite for a week, what would you do? A whole week, probably run it into the ground with my organisational skills! I would hire a massive theme park, get loads of sexy ladies and do some crazy shoots. I think the pictures would be amazing! Oh I love rollercoasters.

So how can a guy impress you? When it comes to my men I'm rather old fashioned, I am instantly attracted to a gentleman. Ao a guy who's completely himself, who has good manners and opens a door for me will definitely impress.

Is there anything unusual about you?

Apart from my twisted sense of humour? Sadly I think I'm pretty boring, I am yet to find a strange ability or even a party trick! People are often quite surprised about my eating habits though, I like pretty strange things. I have been known to crave raw and I love eating whole lemons and the occasional green chilli. Please dont judge me Elite readers!

What kind of girl would you go out for if you were a man? I'm not going to lie, I have pretty high standards! She'd have to be like an Italian supermodel but without the ego, tall, slim with long dark hair, and she'd definitely have to have nice boobs. however the clincher would be if she was intelligent, I can't be doing with these girls that have nothing to say and no opinions. I do enjoy The Sunday Times crossword!

What would you do if you had three wishes? Oh if I don't say that I'd wish for world peace I'll be hated now! I would genuinely wish for long happy lives full of success for all those close to me. I would have to wish that I was stinking rich. Finally a really selfish one, I would wish to never look any older than I am now and always have an amazing body! How bad is that, true though.

What is the naughtiest thing you have done? I flashed my boobs to get me and my friends VIP entry into a club. Classy! It was freezing and raining outside and in my defence the queue was massive!

What is the naughtiest thing you want to do? Rob a bank...only joking. I've always wanted to hire a massive bouncy do very naughty things on it with a male accomplice.

Have you ever kissed a girl? Too many to count...

Where's the strangest place you have ever had sex? Oh god, that's a tricky one. Strangest - lots of naughty places but none of them 'strange'. Hmm you've made me realise my sexual locations are rather cliché, one shall go away and fornicate in a very strange place and get back to you! Any location suggestions please tweet me.

What's your trademark move in the bedroom? I genuinely don't think I have one! I'm more of a spontaneous person when it comes to the bedroom as I'd never want to be thought of as predictable, got to keep you on your toes...

What's a guaranteed turn-on for you? A tall sexy man in a suit with a bit of designer stubble going on, mmm. My real weakness though is a man that knows how to kiss my neck, sends my legs to jelly!

What's your rude fancy-dress outfit of choice? Depends on mood, either naughty school girl or very sexy secretary!

Could you beat a kangaroo in a fight? Definitely not, I'm a wimp! I don't even think I could run away fast enough. It's a running joke with me and my friends that I couldn't win a fight against anyone, especially not a kangaroo! Can't those bad boys break your legs with their tail? I'm a lover not a fighter xx Blonde or brunette? Do you really have to ask? Definitely Brunette!

Finally, any last words to our readers? Thank you so much for having me back in Elite, it's been a true pleasure as always and I hope you'll have me back soon, I'll bring friends! If you've enjoyed my pics keep an eye out for my upcoming website. Lots and lots of love xxxxxx

THE STORY OF SATURDAY NIGHT: GARY LUCY GRAFTS & THE MAN WHO INVENTED DONKEY KONG!

I was running late. I had just watched The X Factor final and fallen on my arse. Well, I say 'fallen'....what I mean is I dropped, skidded and barrell rolled a couple of times on black ice. Cracking way to start a night out. Stellar performance Jsky. What is it with falling over in public? No matter how much pain you are in you will always shoot straight back up and try and act like nothing happened. My hands were bright red. I'd earned my first drink.

I limped over to Livingroom. It was extremely over-crowded, and there were a lot of guys trying to argue their way into the premises. One of the doormen recognised me instantly and let me cut in. Because I'm always rushing to get out on time I never really get to spend that much time on my outfit anymore. I gauge my outfits upon reaction. So far so good.

I was meeting my girl Sarah Lawrence. She was accompanied by Gary Lucy and couple of other friends. He seemed fascinated by me. I couldn't quite tell if he was taking the mic or just wasted. From Livingroom we were chauffeured to Panacea. I later learned that the gentleman sat next to me en route was responsible for inventing the first ever Donkey Kong and Goldeneye video games. I was well impressed.

Panacea was a lot of fun. Our table was complete with one of those ginormous man-sized bottles of Belvedere Vodka. There was only one way this night was going to end; the same way it started...with me on my arse! I bumped into my old friend for University Leon Doyle who joined us for drinks. This was the first time we'd caught up since his recent appearance on BBC's The Apprentice. He was still very much the same guy I remembered.

Midnight has passed us; Bijou time! Gary Lucy and I in our drunken state decided to amuse ourselves and make somewhat of an entrance. Inwards we waltzed, one arm linked, the other on each others bum. The crowd parted like the Red Sea, frozen expression and bewilderment in their eyes. 'What the hell is Jay doing!?', I relished the reaction. It was banter for the morning after. I did not expect this to be followed up by a cheeky snog and a bite on the cheek in VIP. Gary Lucy you crazy mofo. This did not stop the ladies from coming over and flirting though. It was like they were gaming for a ménage. I'm far too innocent for all of this though, and was way too much under the influence of alcohol. I kindly bypassed the offers of Shisha. 'I'll stick to my mints', I thought. Taxi-time! I woke up the next morning fully clothed in bed feeling like I had been slapped by the hangover tree. My hands as red as my eyes, mints scattered everywhere!

Her right hand is raised, touching her hair near the crown of her head. She is wearing a small, dark, circular earring and a strapless top with a colorful geometric pattern. The lighting is soft and warm, creating a gentle glow on her skin.

Full Name: Zoe Sutherland

Age: 20

Location: Portsmouth

Occupation(s): Singer/Model

Tell us a bit about yourself: I'm Zoe, I like to think of myself as 'just Zoe'. Others would describe me as fun loving, smiley and a little bit mad. I'm quite a creative person, I always have been. I couldn't see myself living a 'normal' life, I'm always thinking and doing new exciting things, I like to keep the people around me on their toes ;)

How did you get in to modeling and how long have you been doing it? I think I've always been a bit of a poser as such, looking through my old family albums I don't think you'll find one photo where I'm not striking a pose. But I started properly modelling when I was 18. I was in a girlband and did a promotional photoshoot, where the photographer scouted me and wanted to use me as a model for some photoshoots. That photographer turns out today to be my boyfriend, the wonderful Rob Jamieson, I work very closely with him on lots of shoots, and have been lucky enough to have been booked on professional shoots with him. We're always bouncing ideas off each other, and it's handy to keep my portfolio updated and fresh!

Who would you marry, kiss and avoid?

Marry: Adam Brody (a bit of a crush from the days of watching The OC), Kiss: Captain Jack Sparrow, Avoid: Animals... beastiality is not cool.

If you could eat one food for the rest of your life what would it be? Ice cream!

What are your measurements? Height: 5'5", chest/bust: 32 D, waist: 25, hip: 34, dress Size: 6/8 and shoe: 4.

Can you remember your first shoot and what it was like?

My first shoot was with my old girlband, we had the theme of candy and teddies, was really cute and fun! We shot with Rob Jamieson, I remember he made us all feel really comfortable and we really loved the photos! It all began there :)

Best/Worst shoot to date: I don't think I've ever had a 'bad' shoot. There's been shoots where I've modelled in the snow, and stood on a frozen lake, I felt like I might die, but it was all worth it because the pictures were pretty epic.

One of the best shoots is when I shot for some t-shirt designs for the amazing brand 'Sinstar', was so much fun, loads of polaroids and digital shots, and it involved wigs, alcohol and semi-naked showers with the other model.

Your best and work experiences so far:

I've worked for some pretty awesome brands, a couple of weeks back I did a video promotional shoot for the jewellery company 'A Weathered Penny' in London, we shot on some great locations and it was a really great day. I've also worked with Sinstar a few times, most of the time we get drunk on the shoots and party... these guys really know how to party! I also went to Inverness in Scotland for the Autumn/Winter shoot for Honour Over Glory, it felt like a 3 day all-inclusive break (obviously with lots of hard work and modelling too!) haha ;) but we got to see the Loch Ness which was ace!

Do you do anything else? I am also a singer, I do lead vocals in the pop/rock band KimberHouse. You can see more of us on our facebook (www.facebook.com/kimberhouseofficial)

What are your hobbies? I love customising & making clothes, me and my sister are thinking of starting our own clothing brand one day. I also enjoy taking photos, I have recently bought myself a little Canon DSLR camera, which Rob is teaching me how to use, I think it'll make the modeling better knowing what goes on behind the camera too.

Do you have any other talents? I put my talents into my hobbies pretty much, I can play basic guitar and keyboard... but not that well! :)

Describe yourself in one sentence: Not a one trick pony.

What's your best night out? A selection of my closest friends, a bottle of Amaretto, and some decent live music.

Favourite Music: I listen to quite a wide variety of music from Folk, Rock, Alternative and Indie, I do also like the odd commercial House track now and then.

Are you single or taken: Taken.

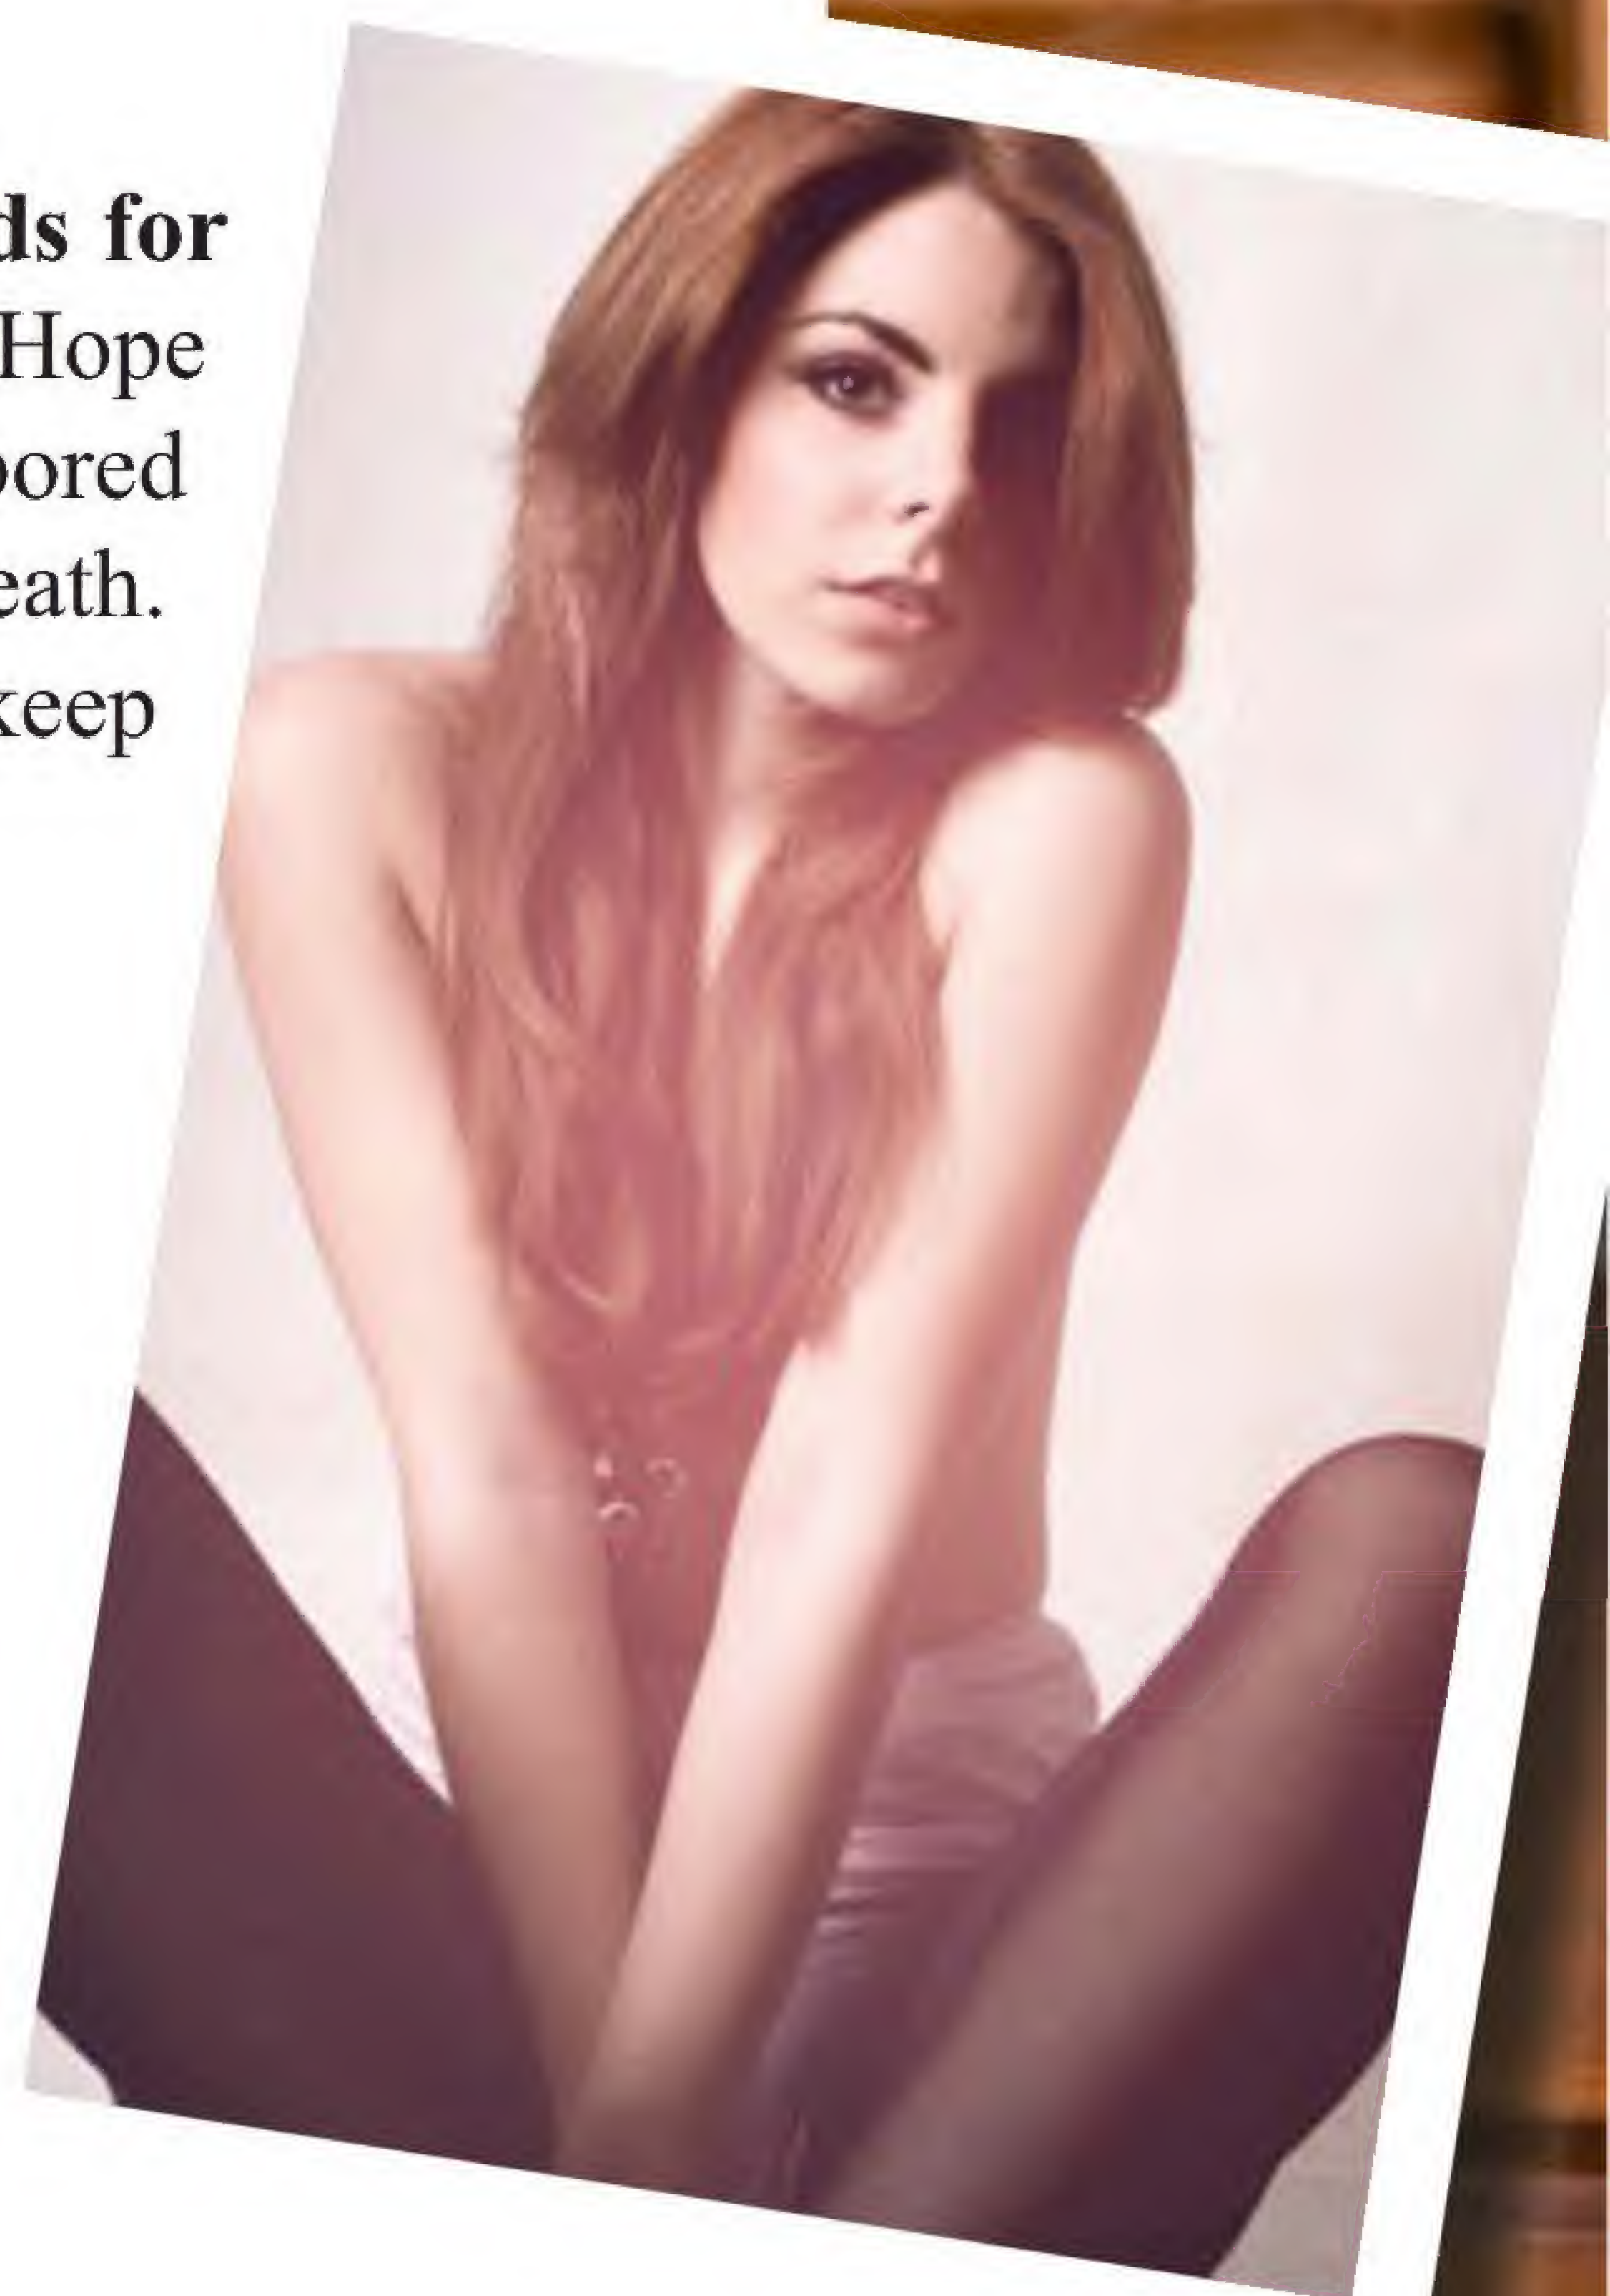

Naughtiest thing you've ever done: Well I'm not the most innocent of people, and we don't have enough space for the lists.... let's just leave it at that!

Have you ever kissed a girl: Yes, and I liked it. Especially the cherry chapstick.

Celebrity dream date: Again, I'd probably say Johnny Depp as Jack Sparrow, bit of a pirate lover!

Future goals: Model for some big brands in 2012 and hopefully be represented by an agency. Release an album with the band and go on tour (of the world eventually). Finally, start my clothing brand with my sister.

Any last words for our readers: Hope I haven't bored you half to death. Peace out, keep rocking ;)

Victoria Fox

Fox by name

Welcome back Victoria! Where have you been, it's been too long.... So what do you do on a day-to-day basis as I am sure your fans would love to know:

Apart from working 24/7! I'm actually a real movie nerd, I love watching all kinds of films be it at the cinema or at home.. I'm currently going through an 80's movie phase so The Burbs and The Goonies are the last two films I watched.

Is this your first photo shoot for a magazine?

I've been quite fortunate with my modelling to be published in several tattoo magazines, various online magazines, Bizarre mag and a couple of new papers. I love it because it breaks down boundaries of the stereo typical glamour models and beauty can come in many different forms and not just your typical girl next door. To quote Marilyn Monroe, "Imperfection is beauty, madness is genius and its better to be absolutely ridiculous than absolutely boring."

Who are your modeling aspirations?

It varies from the vintage eras of Marilyn Monroe, Jayne Mansfield and Bettie Page through to modern tattooed vixens like Masumi Max, Anne Lindjfeld and Sabina Kelley. I find them all fascinating and are actually a big inspiration to my artwork also.

So we know you're are one hell of an artist, but what kind of art do you most identify with?

I really love new skool tattoo artwork, which has an American/ graffiti feel with fat lines and bold colours. Disney is also a big inspiration, I love the cute appeal that the original cartoons has to offer and I'd love to think that my artwork has an element of this concept. With some of my heroes being stars of the silver screen, there's also an obvious love of 50's oil painted pinups from the likes of George Petty and Peter Driben.

What's your favourite art work that you have done?

My most recent favourite would be a collaborative piece I designed for DroneBoy a homegrown streetwear label who I have the uttermost respect and admiration for. So was some what of an honour to discover he's also a fan of my work.

Are there other art forms that seem more attractive to you?

Not really more attractive, but on equal par. I work as a makeup artist, a job that I thoroughly enjoy, an extension of my artistic craving I guess. I thrive in a creative environment, and find that both industries makeup/ pinup art inspire my work.

What is more important to you, style or idea?

I guess they both go hand in hand some what, however you can't have style without the substance of a good idea.

Not only are you a great artist but you have some amazing tattoos – What is your favourite tattoo?

My favourite tattoo is definitely the one on my left forearm, I have two stylized chihuahuas tattooed there. It was done by one of my favourite tattooists Jime Litwalk in Las Vegas, it definitely has the most meaning as my dogs are no longer with me, but it was a cute way of immortalizing them. I'm also a real fan of the artist that created the tattoo for me, so really looking forward to collecting more of his work.

Do you have any other plans for more? Tattoos are particularly addictive, so there's always plans for more. I have a couple of unfinished ones to work on at the moment also, so I should probably work on that before getting extra ones! Although I get carried away when I have an idea in my head, and patience isn't one of my finer qualities!

What advice would you give to someone looking for a tattoo? Choose something that you either love or has meaning, tattoos based on what is currently popular soon won't fit with trend and you'll be stuck with a random tattoo. Remember when Celtic bands were cool in the 90's and now look out of place. Once you've come up with a concept or design idea, research your tattooist, buy some tattoo magazines to check out some studios, and get some inspiration. You can never research enough! Do your homework on the tattooist that your getting work done with, especially with the style of work that your design consists of, look at portfolios, and respect the tattooist advice on your design idea. You may need to make the design larger or change the shape to make it fit and flow with the area that your looking to get tattooed. Other than that have fun and be unique!

What do you think about tattoos in society, especially with work. Do you think they should be more accepted? I believe the stigma attached with having tattoos especially a lot of tattoo coverage is becoming more socially accepted. There are more celebrities now than ever with tattooed sleeves, back pieces, and more 'public skin' is getting inked up. However with my work I still tend to cover up, there is still some what of a public curiosity with regards to tattoos whether it be positive or negative. So I'd rather be judged by my work than my ink on an initial meeting. Saying that I'm still proud of my ink work and don't regret anything.

Tell us a bit more about Fox Toons: Fox Toons are colourful, bright, cartoon, pinup characters. They are reminiscent of vintage oil painted girls with cheeky, sexy themes, crossed with a modern Disney-esque vibe. You can purchase Fox Toons posters, prints and necklaces each with their own cute characters.

Can you tell us how it would be possible to get a personalized Fox Toon? You can certainly have a Fox Toon character drawn up in your likeness or someone else's. You can choose colours, pose and theme preferences. Personalized Toons make unique gifts. Check out my website for more info on prices; www.foxtoons.co.uk

Your a woman of many talents and being a makeup artist is one of those talents! How is it going? Really well thank you! Just getting over the rush of Christmas party season. And looking forward to Fashion Week, I'm fortunate enough to being going to Paris to work on the couture shows, which will definitely be a highlight in 2012.

What is your top tip to girls out there for make-up? Top Tip, wow there are so many! Well I'm a big smokey eye makeup fan, it's a look which suits everyone, and you can adjust the colour's and technique used to suit any eye shape and age. All women look hot with smokey eyes, but as it can get a bit messy. Do your eyes first girls so you can wipe away and eye shadow that has dropped and then apply your foundation.

Have you ever been asked for one of your photos to be used for something really odd? Not really, although one of the oddest jobs I've ever had was for my arm to appear in an advert for crufts! They complied a collage of video clips of random dog related imagery and my chihuahua tattoo was featured!

Could you beat a kangaroo in a fight? As much as I'd like to appear tough and say yes, unfortunately I think the kangaroo would pummel me to the floor! I've never been in a fight in my life so its highly likely I would lose, and very badly!

Finally, what would you like to say to our readers? I'm a lover of quotes, so I'd like to finish with some wise words from David Frost, "Don't aim for success if you want it, just do what you love and believe in, and it will come naturally"

JENNY CLEWLOW

MODEL TIPS

A PHILOSOPHICAL OUTLOOK AND SOME THOUGHTS FOR 2012

Sometimes in life we forget about the little things that really matter and that have made us the person we come to be. As we all hurry along getting on with our daily existence which for many entails endlessly rushing around in an attempt to just basically survive it is easy to forget that life is indeed a beautiful thing. More often than not we are just not allowed a second to realise how amazing each and every one of us truly are. As our lives go on it becomes increasingly difficult to keep in contact with each and every one of your friends and relatives, we all somehow drift apart off making our own life stories but true friends are never too far away from our thoughts. I feel I am blessed to have some truly amazing friends and family that support me throughout my journey in life, whether it be through my modelling or just the little things like being there to pick me up if I feel low, my friends and family are precious to me and in a way act as an inspiration to keep me working hard at my career and to try and better myself.

King Solomon, one of the wisest and richest men of antiquity said about his life: "I undertook great projects: I built houses for myself and planted vineyards. I made gardens and parks ...

reservoirs to water groves of flourishing trees. I bought male and female slaves I also owned more herds and flocks than anyone in Jerusalem before me. I amassed silver and gold for myself, and the treasure of kings and provinces.... In all this my wisdom stayed with me. I denied myself nothing my eyes desired; I refused my heart no pleasure. My heart took delight in all my work, and this was the reward for all my labour. Yet when I surveyed all that my hands had done and what I had toiled to achieve, everything was meaningless, a chasing after the wind; nothing was gained under the sun' To me anyway this statement goes to show that you can have all the fame, money and power in the world but this does not inevitably bring happiness. We all strive to better ourselves, whether it be a better model and gain more exposure and publicity and in turn become successful or whether it be a better photographer and get pictures published and become the sought after one to 'shoot' with. Yes we are doing it for that little bit of Fame, money and maybe even power but deep down there is a realisation that real power and happiness is not found within our many possessions but in our closest loved ones and friends. A truly rich person is one that has to use all their fingers to count the number of true friends they can say they could count on and trust implicitly.

Around this time of year there is always a bit of soul searching to be done and thoughts to lost ones and their families, as I say sometimes we get lost in our own complexities but it is good to keep in mind that we are very lucky to be here and this should act as a catalyst to project yourself in a good light as a decent person. This will be beneficial to your modelling career as most casting agencies will see you as a hard working reliable and good person, not somebody who would let them down and become too overconfident and maybe troublesome. The modelling industry is very cutthroat which at times is unfortunate, too many times we hear of backstabbing and jealousy which is a shame as the industry is large enough to accommodate a huge number of models and photographers. Every time we log onto social network sites there is another feud taking place for things that seem very insignificant, it is definitely my philosophy to try and get on with everyone, I am not good at confrontation so therefore stay as far away from it as possible. It is a harsh reality of society today though that success breeds contempt and jealousy and that is when you begin to see and realise who your true friends are. Sometimes it can be heart-breaking to discover that people you thought were close friends are actually snidely wishing bad things upon you behind your back, the truth is that these people are not real friends, real friends will never doubt you, never knock you down and will always wish success upon you. I personally wish that everyone can have their own slice of success and happiness, it is a tough world and we all need help to become who we aspire to be.

Photographer: GDH Photography

As we approach a new year I am sure a lot of you will be setting yourselves various goals and resolutions for 2012. This is a good thing to do I feel, as keeping a goal in your head can act as a good motivational tool to keep you focused on achieving what you really wish. I know some people who actually put pictures up on their notice boards or message boards of cars, houses and other things to act as a constant reminder of what they want to achieve and this seems to help them focus on their goal. Nothing is completely impossible although it may seem it sometimes with life's everyday struggles and stresses, I feel very fortunate for each and every opportunity that comes my way and realise that I could not do half the modelling castings and assignments without the help of my friends, my boyfriend and my parents.

Well that's pretty much it from me for 2011, this has been a bit of a different article this month but at New Year it is a good time for a wee look back at all our year's achievements and take a chance to say Thank You to everyone who has helped and supported us throughout the year. I would personally like to Thank all my friends that have helped and supported me, my family, all the photographers and studios that I have worked with all over the UK and the promotions agencies and modelling agencies I have carried out work for this year. I wish you all great success in 2012 and hope to continue helping and giving advice to any aspiring model who may need some tips throughout the new year, and anyone who wishes to contact me can do through my website at www.jennyclewlow.com. Finally I would like to thank Elite Online magazine for their help throughout the year and for giving me the opportunity to write this column. Thanks to all and a Happy New Year Everyone.

Love and Kisses

How long have you been modelling for and why did you decide to do it? I have only been modelling for 6 months. When I was first scouted for SGA, I never in a million years thought I was going to win! I decided to do it because it is great to see the final pictures and feel good about yourself.

What's the best thing about having big boobs? You can rest anything on them! No need to 'eat off your lap'! Keeping warm in the winter :-P

Have you ever popped out in public? Unfortunately yes... do not go down a kamikaze slide in a bikini! Next time a wet suit will be worn!!

If you could be one person for the day, who would you be? I would be Pixie Lott so I could sing my favourite songs all the time without being tone deaf!

So how can a guy impress you? The most important thing for me in a guy is somebody that can make me laugh. Oh and every girl likes to be spoilt!
